Chapter 7

Appeal, Complaint, etc.

24. Disposal of appeal, etc.—(1) If Any person fails to receive information within the time specified in sub-section (1), (2) and (4) of section 9 or is aggrieved by a decision of the officer-in-charge may, within 30 (thirty) days from the expiry of such period or, as the case may be, from the receipt of such a decision, prefer an appeal to the appellate authority.

(2) If the appellate authority is satisfied that the appellant has failed to prefer an appeal within the time-limit as mentioned in sub-section (1) for any reasonable ground, it may accept the appeal even after the expiry of that time.

(3) The appellate authority shall within 15 (fifteen) days of the receipt of the appeal under sub-section (1) or (2)—

- (a) direct the concerned officer-in-charge to supply the appellant the requested information; and
- (b) dismiss the appeal if it is not considered fit for acceptance.

(4) The officer-in-charge on being directed to supply information under sub-section (3) shall, within the time specified in sub-section (1), (2) or, as the case may be, (4) of section 9, provide the appellant with the requested information.

25. Making of Complaint, disposal, etc.— (1) A person may lodge a complaint to the Information Commission for any of the following reasons namely :—

- (a) if he gets no information under sub-section (1) of section 13;

- (b) if he is aggrieved by the decision on his appeal under section 24;
- (c) if he gets no information within the time-limit mentioned in section 24 or, as the case may be, gets no decision about providing information.

(2) A complaint may be lodged to the Information Commission at any time in respect of any matter mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), and within 30 (thirty) days from the date of such decision or, as the case may be, the date of exceeding the time-limit in respect of any matter mentioned in clause (b) and (c) of sub-section (1).

(3) If the Information Commission is satisfied that the complainant, for any reasonable cause, fails to lodge a complaint within the time limit as mentioned in sub-section (2), it may accept the appeal even after the expiry of that time.

(4) If the Information Commission is satisfied upon a complaint or otherwise that any authority or, as the case may be, any officer-in-charge has failed to do an act or has done an act that was not necessary to do in accordance with the provisions of this Act, it may take action against such authority or, as the case may be, such officer-in-charge under this section.

(5) On receipt of a complaint under sub-section (1) or if it is required to take an action under sub-section (4), the Chief Information Commissioner himself shall enquire into the complaint or delegate the duty to any other information Commissioner to enquire into the same.

(6) The Chief Information Commission or, as case may be, the Information Commissioner, within 30 (thirty) days from the date of taking or receiving duty under sub-section (5), shall, after completing the enquiry into the complaint, prepare a decision-paper for the Information Commission.

(7) The decision-paper mentioned in sub-section (6) shall be presented in the next meeting of the Information Commission, and it shall, on discussion in the meeting, take decision regarding the matter.

(8) During the enquiry into any complaint under this section, the authority or, as the case may be, the officer-in-charge against whose decision the complaint is lodged, shall be given an opportunity to present arguments in support of his decision.

(9) If a third party is involved in the complaint, the Commission shall also give such third party an opportunity to present his statements.

(10) The Information Commission shall, in general, dispose of any complaint made under sub-section (1) within 45 (forty five) days of receiving such complaint, but, in special cases, if it requires extended time to complete the enquiry and depositions of the witnesses, the complaint may be disposed of within such extended time :

Provide that the time limit of disposing of a complaint shall not, in any way exceed more than 75 (seventy five) days inclusive of extended time.

(11) At the time of taking decision under this section, the Information Commission shall have the following powers namely :—

- (a) to direct the authority or, as the case may be, the officer-in-charge to take the following steps which are necessary to take under the provisions of this Act, namely :—
 - (i) to provide the requested information in a specific manner;
 - (ii) to appoint an officer-in-charge;
 - (iii) to publish any special information or special class of information;
 - (iv) to bring changes in the procedures to be followed by the authority in respect of preservation, management or publication of information;
 - (v) to impart better training on right to information to the officers of the authority;
 - (vi) to give compensation for any loss or damage;
- (b) to impose fines under this Act;
- (c) to keep the decision of the authority in force;
- (d) to reject any complaint;
- (e) to classify the information newly by the authority;
- (f) to interpret any matters relating to the nature, classification, preservation, publication, supply of information in the light of this Act.
